Loughborough University

This item was submitted to Loughborough's Research Repository by the author.
Items in Figshare are protected by copyright, with all rights reserved, unless otherwise indicated.

Resources

PLEASE CITE THE PUBLISHED VERSION

http://www.continuumbooks.com/

PUBLISHER

© Continuum International Publishing

VERSION

AM (Accepted Manuscript)

LICENCE

CC BY-NC-ND 4.0

REPOSITORY RECORD

Kinna, Ruth. 2019. “Resources”. figshare. https://hdl.handle.net/2134/10173.

Loughborough University

This item was submitted to Loughborough's Institutional Repository (https://dspace.lboro.ac.uk/) by the author and is made available under the following Creative Commons Licence conditions.

creative commons

COMMONS DEED

Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 2.5

You are free:

- to copy, distribute, display, and perform the work

Under the following conditions:

Attribution. You must attribute the work in the manner specified by the author or licensor.

Noncommercial. You may not use this work for commercial purposes.

No Derivative Works. You may not alter, transform, or build upon this work.

- For any reuse or distribution, you must make clear to others the license terms of this work.
- Any of these conditions can be waived if you get permission from the copyright holder.

Your fair use and other rights are in no way affected by the above.

This is a human-readable summary of the Legal Code (the full license).

Disclaimer

For the full text of this licence, please go to:
http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/2.5/

18 Resources

Groups, Networks and Associations	367
Projects	371
Individual Sites and Blogs/Sites Devoted to Individuals	376
Sites devoted to historical figures	378
Archives, Libraries and Treasure Troves	379
Archives and libraries	379
Infoshops and social centres with anarchist collections	383
Online materials/digital libraries	384
Other online repositories/digital libraries	389
Films, Videos and DVDs	390
Publishers and Bookshops	395
Journals	398
Journals: Gone but not forgotten	402
Fairs and conferences	404

Entries are organized alphabetically by category. The divisions between groups, associations and projects are approximate. Additional resources for non-English-language anarchisms are included in the bibliographical essays.

Groups, Networks and Associations

A Wikipedia listing of historical and current groups and networks is available at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_anarchist_organizations.

All London Anarchist Revolutionary Movement (ALARM). Established in May 2011 (temporary site at www.soundthealarm.org.uk/sample-page/) with links to groups around London including Haringey Solidarity Group, Hackney and Whitechapel anarchists and Radical London.

Anarchism in Switzerland. A directory of groups, networks and projects, available at www.arachnia.ch/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 367 3/10/2012 5:23:01 PM

Anarchist Academics. A list for people interested in anarchism and involved with academic institutions or doing academic work – students, lecturers, independent researchers, available at http://lists.mutualaid.org/mailman/listinfo/anarchist.academics.

Anarchist Black Cross. Campaigning organization for prisoners, available at www.abcf.net/. Matthew Hart's short history of the ABC is available at http://southafrica.indymedia.org/news/2005/03/7761_comment.php.

Anarchist People of Color. A networking site with a variety of resources and links to affinity groups, available at http://anarchistpeopleofcolor.tumblr.com/. See also http://affinityproject.org/groups/anarchistsofcolor.html.

Anarchist Writers. An article archive and blog spot, available at http://anarchism.pageabode.com/about-us.

Anarchist Studies Initiative at SUNY Coutland (ASI). The ASI is an interdisciplinary scholarly centre dedicated to expanding the field of anarchist studies and is linked to the Center for Gender and Intercultural Studies at the State University of New York at Cortland, NY. The ASI runs a peer-reviewed book series: Transformative Justice, available at www2.cortland.edu/centers/CGIS/asi/index.dot.

Anarchist Studies Network (ASN). A specialist group of the UK Political Studies Association which brings together students, university academics and independent scholars to facilitate and promote the study of anarchism as a modern political theory and practice. Group members work in a range of disciplinary fields, mainly in the United Kingdom and Europe, and it provides information about conferences, publishing opportunities as well as subject-specific information about research. The members' list provides a space for discussion, debate and support. Information about ASIRA (Academics and Students Interested in Religious Anarchism), a subgroup of the ASN is also available on the site http://anarchist-studies-network.org.uk/.

Anarchists Against the Wall. A direct action group of Israeli activists, founded in 2003, available at www.awalls.org/.

Anarkismo.net. An international anarchist-communist site which collects and disseminates news and analysis by and for like-minded groups and provides a space for dialogue and discussion. Maintains links to a number of affiliate groups. Available at www.anarkismo.net/.

Αντιεξουσιαστική Κίνηση (Anti-authoritarian Movement). Greek anarchist group at www.resistance2003.gr/. The group also publishes the newspaper Babylonia and is active in the Social Collective 'Nosotros' available at http://www.nosotros.gr/. See also The Void Network at http://voidnetwork.blogspot.com/2007/02/nosotros-free-social-space-athens.html.

Αυτόνομο Στέκι – Autonomous 'Place'. Space housing one of oldest Greek anarchist collectives, also used for meetings and events by numerous other groups, available at http://autonomosteki.espivblogs.net/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 368 3/10/2012 5:23:03 PM

Berkeley Anarchist Study Group. A long-established reading group, running for over 10 years, and serving as a hub for other groups and projects. The group organizes an annual conference – the Berkeley Anarchist Students of Theory and Research and Development (BASTARD) conference for anarchist theory. Available at http://sfbay-anarchists.org/.

Beyond Resistance. A collective of anarchists across Aotearoa, available at http://beyondresistance.wordpress.com/.

Black Orchid Collective. Seattle-based multi-gendered, multiracial revolutionary collective. Blogspot, writings and links. Available at http://blackorchid-collective.wordpress.com/.

Block Network. A network of Greek autonomous groups, drawing from workerist traditions, available at www.autonomia.gr/.

Bristol Space Invaders. DiY, anti-corporate dreamers and schemers available at http://bristolspaceinvaders.wordpress.com/

Center for Anarchist Studies, Croatia. Anarcho-syndicalist centre, organizes seminars, publishes on anarchist history, theory and practice and a repository for literature, available at http://anarhizam.hr/.

Class War. Militant UK propaganda group, available at http://classwar-uk.blogspot.com/.

Common Struggle/Luch Común. Libertarian communist, platformist organization, active in northeastern regions of North America. Established in 1999 as the Northeastern Federation of Anarchists Communists (NEFAC). Available at http://commonstruggle.org/intro.

CrimethInc. Decentralized anarchist collective, for freedom and joy. Available at www.crimethinc.com/.

Grupo de Estudos e Pesquisas Anarquistas (GEPA) (Group for Research and Study of Anarchism) is a meeting ground between students, researchers, teachers and anyone interested in anarchist studies and related subjects operating in the Department of Social Sciences in the Federal University of Paraíba, Brazil. It promotes open sessions of studies, organizes regular activities, free tutorials, workshops and lectures; brings together professors and researchers from various areas for the establishment of academic and scientific cooperation and exchange. Available at http://gepanufpb.wordpress.com/apresentacao/

International of Anarchist Federations (IAF). An anarcho-communist federation which takes its inspiration from the 1872 St Imier Congress, Switzerland, organized by anti-authoritarians after the break-up of the First International, available at http://i-f-a.org/.

International Workers Association (IWA-AIT). Libertarian communist, class-struggle and revolutionary unionist organization, with sections across the globe, available at www.iwa-ait.org/.

Institute for Anarchist Studies (IAS). Promotes the development of anarchism by funding the work of radical writers and translators across the world.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 369 3/10/2012 5:23:03 PM

The IAS runs a journal, Perspectives on Anarchist Theory and a book series ('Anarchist Interventions') with AK Press. The IAS also runs an annual conference Renewing the Anarchist Tradition (RAT) in the USA. The IAS site includes a useful set of links to anarchist publishers, groups and resources. Available at www.anarchist-studies.org.

Just seeds. Decentralized art-activist co-operative, available at http://just-seeds.org/.

Left Turn. Activist network – anti-capitalist, radical feminist, anti-racist, queer and trans-liberationist and anti-imperialist – working to build resistance and alternatives to corporate power and empire. Produces a magazine by the same name. Available at www.leftturn.org/.

Living Theatre. Experimental anarchist touring company, based in New York and founded in 1947. Available at www.livingtheatre.org/#.

London Action Resource Centre. Meeting place, library and hub for direct action movements, available at www.londonarc.org/. Hosts the Red and Black club, the monthly social meeting of ALARM.

Molinari Institute. Site for the promotion of market anarchism, available at http://praxeology.net/molinari.htm.

Northern Anarchist Network (NAN). Regional UK body of unaffiliated and organized anarchists founded in 1995 in Manchester Town Hall, available at http://northernvoicesmag.blogspot.com/p/northern-anarchist-network.html. Publishes Northern Voices at http://northernvoicesmag.blogspot.com/.

North American Anarchist Studies Network (NAASN). The group provides mutual support for individuals involved in anarchist research – students, academics and independent scholars in the United States, Canada and Mexico – and promotes anarchist studies through dialogue and critical reflection on anarchism. The NAASN site includes membership details, links to working groups and a discussion forum. Available at www.naasn.org/.

North East Anarchist Network (US). Founded in Boston in 2007 as a horizontal organizing network. The affiliates include groups in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Ithaca. Produces a journal, Nor'easter. Available at http://neanarchist.net/.

Red and Anarchist Action Network (RAAN). Anti-state communist and anarchist, libertarian anti-capitalist organization of 'autonomies'. Hub at www.redanarchist.org/.

Resistance Studies Network. Organised by scholars at the University of Gothenburg for the critical study of power, resistance and social change. Available at http://resistancestudies.org/

Space Hijackers. A group of anarchitects dedicated to battling the encroachments of urban planners, corporations and institutions into public spaces, available at www.spacehijackers.org/html/history.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 370 3/10/2012 5:23:03 PM

Subrosa. A collective of interdisciplinary feminist artists, exploring the links between art, social activism and politics. The group name honours the memory of Rosa Bonheur, Rosa Luxemburg, Rosie the Riveter, Rosa Parks and Rosie Franklin. Available at www.cyberfeminism.net/.

Tyneside Solidarity. An umbrella for Afed, SolFed, IWW and non-aligned class struggle anarchist groups in North East England. Available at http://www.tynesidesolidarity.org.uk/

Unsettling America. An emerging decentralized network of autonomous groups and individuals dedicated to mental and territorial decolonization throughout Turtle Island and the 'Americas', available at http://unsettlingamerica.wordpress.com/.

Vacuum Cleaner. A cultural resistance collective for radical social and ecological change, available at www.thevacuumcleaner.co.uk/menu/. Co-founder of the Laboratory of Insurrectionary Imagination at www.labofii.net/.

Workers Solidarity Alliance. Anti-capitalist, anti-authoritarian network, central office in New York, founded in 1984, and dedicated to fostering self-managed unions in the workplace and community organizations. Produces a journal, Worker Solidarity. Available at http://workersolidarity.org/.

Workers Solidarity Movement. Site for the Dublin-based anarchist group, provides access to position papers, newspaper and audio material discussing a wide range of contemporary social and political issues, available at www.wsm.ie/.

Zabalaza. Southern African anarcho-communist anarchism. It provides access to a range of historical and contemporary resources, a journal, and links to other international and African communist, syndicalist and labour groups and movements. Available at http://zabnew.wordpress.com/.

Projects

Adbusters. Not-for profit culture-jamming organization, involved in campaigning, notably the Occupy movement. Site has examples of work, campaign information and selected articles from the subscription magazine. Available at www.adbusters.org/.

Advisory Service for Squatters. Voluntary run, London campaigning service, providing practical advice and guides, located by Freedom Press Bookshop, Whitechapel. Available at www.squatter.org.uk/.

Analytical Anarchism. Open forum for academics to promote and discuss research in analytical anarchism, available at http://analyticalanarchism.net/.

Anarcha. Hub for anarchist women with news, articles, images and discussion. Available at http://www.anarcha.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 371 3/10/2012 5:23:03 PM

Anarchalibrary. An online archive which developed from anarcha, with work covering issues from ableism to witch hunting. Available at http://anarchalibrary.blogspot.com/.

Anarchism: A Documentary. A project, currently underway, designed to provide an introduction to the international anarchist movement, based on interviews with activists. For details, see http://anarchismdocumentary.net/.

Anarcho-Punk. International, multi-lingual community site for anti-fascist, anti-capitalist, anti-authoritarian punk: forum, music, movie and documentary downloads, available at www.anarcho-punk.net.

Anarcho-Syndicalism 101. For global revolutionary union organization, autonomous working-class solidarity and direct action set up in 1997 by Ben Debney and relaunced in 2006. Wide range of resources and links were available at www.anarchosyndicalism.net/index.php, but site is currently unavailable.

Anarchy 101. An online resource, designed for people coming fresh to anarchism and for those who want to find answers to general questions, available at http://anarchy101.org/about-us.

Anarchist Encyclopedia. Search tool for information about all sorts of activists, events and groups. The Daily Bleed calendar of peoples' history page has links to French and Catalan movements and publications. Available at http://recollectionbooks.com/bleed/gallery/galleryindex.htm.

Anarchist News Service (A-Infos). A multi-lingual news service for, by and about anarchists, available at www.ainfos.ca/.

Anarchist Teapot. Non-profit, voluntary mobile kitchen operating out of Brighton, UK. Available at http://www.eco-action.org/teapot/

Anarchist Voices. A site for recording and building knowledge and understanding of practical activities, through video and documentary, available at http://anarchistvoices.wetpaint.com/.

Anarkismi. Hub for Finnish anarchist groups and projects, available at http://anarkismi.net/.

Animal Liberation Front. Anarchistically organized direct action, non-violent campaign network of autonomous groups. Vegetarians and vegans carrying out actions in accordance with ALF guidelines are considered part of the network. Available at www.animalliberationfront.com/index.html.

Affinity Project. A group of affinity-anarchist related academics and community activists in Toronto, Canada, exploring anti-hegemonic forms of social organization and social change. The project site has a range of excellent resources and links to the journal Affinities. Available at http://affinityproject.org/.

Audio Anarchy. Project for transcribing books into audio format, available at www.audioanarchy.org/index.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 372 3/10/2012 5:23:03 PM

Bicycology. UK-based non-hierarchical collective – cycling for the creation of a just and sustainable world through direct action and education. Available at www.bicycology.org.uk.

Burning Man. Annual week-long anti-commercial community-building festival in the Black Rock desert, Nevada, based on radical inclusion, cooperation and gift-giving, available at www.burningman.com/.

Center for a Stateless Society (C4SS). A project of the Molinari Institute (market anarchism), available at http://c4ss.org/.

Climate Camp. Grass-roots organizing to take action against climate chaos, available at www.climatecamp.org.uk/.

Collective Book on Collective Process. A handbook about democratic process within collectives, examining the problems of decision-making as well as the possibilities for resolution developed by the Common Wheel Collective, New York, available at www.geocities.com/collectivebook/#book1.

Collective Reason. A collaborative translation project, using a wiki to translate anarchist and other left classics, available at www.collectivereason.org/index.php?title=Main_Page.

Cop Watch. Network to promote public safety and for police accountability, with anarchist involvement at local level. Rose City Cop Watch – part of the network, provides information about promoting alternatives to policing. Available at http://rosecitycopwatch.wordpress.com/.

Dead Anarchists. A site developed from a local history project in Philadelphia, available at www.deadanarchists.org/.

Disobedience, an ongoing video archive. Art-activist project by Marco Scotini, available at www.disobediencearchive.com/.

Earth First! Grass-roots, anti-corporate, anti-professional, direct action, biocentric network, engages in civil disobedience, monkey-wrenching and legal protest to protect the wilderness. The site has links to the journal Earth First!, to news and events. Available at www.earthfirst.org/.

Earth Liberation Front. Anarchistically organized eco-guerrilla direct action network of autonomous groups, with philosophical links to Earth First!, available at http://earth-liberation-front.org/.

Edu-Factory. A transnational collective working for the transformation of education, globally, and interrogating issues associated with knowledge production, available at www.edu-factory.org/wp/about/.

Fitwatch. Direct action for the right to protest without harassment or intimidation, set up to challenge police initiatives – Forward Intelligence Teams – used in surveillance. Active in United Kingdom since 2007. Available at www.fitwatch.org.uk/.

Food Not Bombs. Information about the non-violent, non-hierarchical consensus-based vegan/vegetarian direct action movement at www.foodnotbombs.net/seven.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 373 3/10/2012 5:23:03 PM

Freely Associating. Experiments in anti-capitalism in Leeds, UK, available at http://freelyassociating.org/.

Free Skool. Information about free skooling with links to active schools in Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom, available at http://freeskool.org/.

Green & Black Cross Grass-roots project to support autonomous social struggles in the United Kingdom, set up in 2010, providing legal support for protests, available at http://greenandblackcross.org/.

Independent Media Center (IMC/Indymedia). Anti-corporate, DiY, independent and alternative media network with projects across the world. http://www.indymedia.org/en/ .

Infoshop.org. Online library, blogs, discussion groups, directory and information on anarchist groups, available at www.infoshop.org/index.php.

Institute for Critical Animal Studies. A project that grew from Anthony J. Nocella and Steve Best's book, Terrorists of Freedom Fighters: Reflections on the Liberation of Animals (Brooklyn, NY: Lantern Books: 2004). The Institute runs the Journal for Critical Animal Studies. Available at www.criticalanimalstudies.org/about/.

Institute for Social Ecology (ISE). An independent institution of higher education co-founded by Murray Bookchin, devoted to the study of social ecology, an interdisciplinary field drawing on philosophy, political and social theory, anthropology, history, economics, the natural sciences and feminism. The site has links to the ISE journal, Harbinger, and to associated projects around the world. Available at www.social-ecology.org/.

Libcom.org. Primary resource for UK anarchists, designed for the dissemination of information about and discussion of contemporary events by and for libertarian communists – provides access to a wealth of information and important analysis. Available at http://libcom.org

Libertarian Learning Centre. At Mondo Politico, available at. www.mondopolitico.com/ideologies/libertarianism/whatislibertarianism.htm.

Minor Compositions. Interventions from autonomist politics, avant-garde aesthetics and revolutions of everyday life, available at www.minorcompositions.info/.

Mutualist.org. Free market anti-capitalism, available at www.mutualist.org/index.html.

No Borders. Non-aligned campaigning UK network, available at http://noborders.org.uk/.

No One Is Illegal. UK: http://noii.org.uk/ and for Canada: www.nooneislegal.org/. A book, No One is Illegal: Fighting Racism and State Violence on the U.S.-Mexico Border, by Mike Davis and Justin Akers Chacón is published by Haymarket Books, available at www.haymarketbooks.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 374 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

Peoples Assemblies. Network for horizontal democracy. Available at www.peoplesassemblies.org/.

Planting Justice. Grass-roots, community action organization working for food justice and sustainability in Oakland, CA, available at www.plantingjustice.org/.

Pirate-Punk. Community site for the promotion of French punk: downloads, listings and platform for free distribution, available at www.pirate-punk.net/.

Public School. A school with no curriculum. Information at http://la.thepublicschool.org/

Radical Routes. A UK network of radical co-ops committed to social change, available at www.radicalroutes.org.uk/.

Really Open University. Transformative higher education project started in Leeds, UK. http://reallyopenuniversity.wordpress.com/.

Research on Anarchism (RA) Forum. A multi-lingual online archive and database which provides access to an enormous range of full-text materials, essays, academic papers, dissertations by leading authors and contemporary historians of anarchism. This site has an online discussion forum and carries news about contemporary events. Available at http://raforum.info/.

Seeds of Change. Network for grass-roots activism, available at www.seedsforchange.org.uk/.

Transformative Studies Institute (TSI). The TSI is a volunteer-run social justice think-tank which encourages interdisciplinary research useful to community action and with application to social problems. It brings together different groups of activists and runs the journal, Theory in Action. Available at www.transformativestudies.org/about-2/.

Trapese. A UK-based popular education collective. The site provides information about the group's activities and a wealth of resources about do it yourself and consensus decision-making and links to action, media and education networks. Available at www.trapese.org/.

Veggies. UK vegan catering in operation since 1984 – volunteer led, community based – information exchange and campaign networking for humans, animals and the environment, available at www.veggies.org.uk/.

Zapatista Women/Mujeres Zapatistas. Virtual space for discussion, participation and education with links to a range of Indigenous and women's resistance groups and a bibliography of resources on Zapatista Women. http://www.actlab.utexas.edu/~geneve/zapwomen/.

Znet. Hosts a range of projects, including a magazine, media centre and blog, with links to Michael Albert and Parecon, available at www.zcommunications.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 375 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

Individual Sites and Blogs/Sites Devoted to Individuals

Information about work produced by university-based scholars is maintained by employing institutions. Most of the non-historic sites below include publications by individual authors, but also a range of other useful resources. There are large numbers of anarchist bloggers. The hubs, anarchoblogs in English at http://eng.anarchoblogs.org/about/, in Spanish at http://spa.anarchoblogs.org/ and in German at http://deu.anarchoblogs.org/, are useful starting points for discovery.

Agraphia. The website for the artist Clifford Harper, at www.agraphia.co.uk/home.html.

Anarchy Alive. The website of the writer/activist Uri Gordon, dedicated to closing the gaps between theory and practice. It includes resources and links to information about contemporary politics and anarchist activism. Available at http://anarchyalive.com/about-uri-gordon/.

Aragorn! Blog of the anarchist writer, publisher and distributor, available at http://aragorn.anarchyplanet.org/. Aragorn's pamphlet Nihilism, Anarchy and the 21st Century is available at The Anarchist Library at http://theanarchistlibrary.org/HTML/Aragorn___Nihilism__Anarchy__and_the_21st_century.html.

Hakim Bey and Ontological Anarchy. Online access to the writings of Hakim Bey and Peter Lamborn Wilson, available at http://hermetic.com/bey/.

Bob Black. A selection of writings and rants at www.inspiracy.com/black/.

Ian Bone. Class warrior blog, available at http://ianbone.wordpress.com/.

Booksurfer. Martyn Everett's blog, with links to library and publishing resources, book reviews, news about anarchism and alternative politics as well as to his own work, available at http://booksurfer.blogspot.com/.

Jano Charbel. Blog of the Egyptian anarchist journalist, available at http://she2i2.blogspot.com/.

Noam Chomsky. The site provides access to books, articles, videos and interviews by and with Chomsky, one of America's most prominent libertarians, at http://www.chomsky.info/.

John Clark. Personal website providing access to an extensive collection of papers examining anarchist history, politics, philosophy, local activism, ecology and surrealism, published by Clark and under the name Max Cafford is available at www.loyno.edu/~clark/.

Donnacha DeLong. Anarcho-syndicalist freelance journalist. Interests in radical and new media. Blog: http://donnachadelong.info.

Dennis Fox. Blog, academic papers on law, justice and psychology from an anarchist perspective and reflections on activist involvement and contemporary politics, available at www.dennisfox.net/index.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 376 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

Vomiting Diamonds. Site for New Zealand and Australian archive materials – especially council communist currents, available at http://vomitingdiamonds.wordpress.com/category/historical-pamphlets/.

Robert Graham. This weblog supplements and provides commentary on Robert Graham's multi-volume anthology of anarchism, The Documentary History of Libertarian Ideas, available at http://robertgraham.wordpress.com/.

John Gray. Access to texts by selected anti-capitalist, communist authors (from Sylvia Pankhurst to Fredy Perlman) and a long list of projects, journals and organizations, available at http://www.geocities.com/~johngray/index.html#toc.

Judy Greenway. Writings on anarchism, feminism, nineteenth-century anarchist and feminist movements and ideas, utopianism the politics of gender and sexuality, available at http://judygreenway.org.uk/.

Gavin Grindon. Writings, translations and links, available at http://www.gavingrindon.net/?page_id=11.

Brandon Jourdan. Independent film-maker and journalist. Available at http://www.brandonjourdan.blogspot.com/.

Chuck Morse: Negations. Holds interviews, translations and articles by Morse and an archive of Latin American anarchist material, available at http://www.negations.net/.

Wendy McElroy. Personal blog space of the individualist-feminist: includes links to published work and the online index to Benjamin Tucker's Liberty (Anarchy Archives has a link to the complete run of Liberty), available at www.wendymcelroy.com/blog.html.

George McKay. Commentary on cultural studies, music, disability, do-it-yourself (DiY) information about current academic work and festival reports, available at http://georgemckay.org/.

Brian Martin. Access to a full range of publications on issues including non-violent direct action, democracy, activism and scholarship and intellectual property, available at http://www.bmartin.cc/pubs/.

The Nowtopian: Chris Carlsson's blog. Available at www.processedworld.com/carlsson/nowtopian/.

Hubert Kennedy. The website provides free access to the writings of John Henry Mackay and information about other published work at http://hubert-kennedy.angelfire.com/.

Dmytri Kleiner. Venture communist and creator of miscommunication technologies; author of the Telekommuist Manifesto. www.dmytri.info/.

Rekokektiv. Marxist-anarchist essays in politics and history, blog and links. http://rekolektiv.wordpress.com/.

Starhawk. The site provides access to writings, projects and resources linked to environment, feminist, social justice activism, at http://www.starhawk.org/index.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 377 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

Lucien van der Walt. The blog provides access to Lucien's writings on political economy, policy, unions and class struggles, written from an anarchist/syndicalist perspective at http://lucienvanderwalt.blogspot.com/2011/02/anarchism-black-flame-marxism-and-ist.html.

Shawn P. Wilber. Multi-blogger and libertarian archivist of the Libertarian Labyrinth. The profile at Two Gun Mutualism and the Golden Rule at http://libertarian-labyrinth.blogspot.com/ has resources and the full list of his blogs.

James VanHise – Fragments Website. A personal website with reflections on war and violence, power, the necessity of social change, with photo, poetry, essays and ranks. Useful links page. Available at http://www.fragmentsweb.org/index.html.

John Zerzan. The site for the anti-civilization writer and activist holds interview material, links to publishing archive and Anarchy Radio. Available at http://www.johnzerzan.net/. Zerzan's papers (1946–2000) are held at the University of Oregon, available at http://uolibraries.worldcat.org/title/john-zerzan-papers-1946–2000/oclc/75959550&referer=brief_results.

Howard Zinn. Official site: http://howardzinn.org/. Page with links to writings maintained by Third World Traveler at http://www.thirdworldtraveler.com/Zinn/HZinn_page.html.

Sites devoted to historical figures

Guy Aldred (1886–1963). On the Radical Glasgow site of Glasgow Caledonian University: www.gcu.ac.uk/radicalglasgow/chapters/aldred.html.

Michael Bakunin (1814–76). Items on the life and thought of Bakunin on Robert Cutler's website: www.robertcutler.org/bakunin/index.htm.

Edward Carpenter (1844–1929). Online archive available at http://www.edwardcarpenter.net/index.html.

Joseph Déjacque (1821–64). Available at http://joseph.dejacque.free.fr/.

Voltairine de Cleyre (1866–1912). Available at www.voltairine.org/.

Léo Ferré (1916–93). Available at www.leo-ferre.com/accueil/accueil.html.

Daniel Guérin (1904–88). Available at http://danielguerin.info/tiki-index.php.

Bernard Lazare (1865–1903). Available at http://c.sandrel.free.fr/.

Nestor Maknno (1888–1934). Available at www.nestormakhno.info/index.htm.

Georges Palante (1862–1925). Available at http://selene.star.pagesperso-orange.fr/.

Lucy Parsons (1853–1942). Available at http://www.lucyparsonsproject.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 378 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

Ferdinand Pelloutier (1867–1901). Available at www.pelloutier.net/welcome/index.php.

P-J Proudhon (1809–65). Société P-J Proudhon, available at http://societeproudhon.ouvaton.org/.

Armand Robin (1912–61). Available at http://armandrobin.org/.

Elisée Reclus (1830–1905). RAforum site http://raforum.info/reclus/ .

Rudolf Rocker (1873–1958). Site created in order to maintain free access to Rocker's work: http://syndikalismusforschung.wordpress.com/solidaritypage-about-the-rocker-case/.

Spooner Society. Dedicated to the work of Lysander Spooner – under construction: http://spooner.celestial.com/.

Henry David Thoreau (1817–1862). Walden Woods Project, available at www.walden.org/.

Henry Albert Seymour (1860–1938). Blog, repository, biographical information and pamphlets – for discussion and research about the late nineteenth-century London individualist anarchist: http://henryalbertseymour.com/.

Archives, Libraries and Treasure Troves

Anarchist materials – books, dissertations, pamphlets and manuscript and archive material are held by a large number of national and university libraries. Libraries holding significant pamphlet, manuscript or book collections are included in the list below. A further list of library directories and search tools appear after the listing.

Archives and libraries

Alexander Turnbull Library, Wellington, New Zealand. Holds a large collection of anarchist materials, available at www.natlib.govt.nz/catalogues/tapuhi.

Archives de L'Etat, Neuchâtel, Switzerland. Holds the archive of James Guillaume, letters to Kropotkin from various correspondents at www.ne.ch/neat/site/jsp/rubrique/rubrique.jsp?StyleType=bleu&CatId=2987. The collection is described in M. Vuilleumier, 'Les archives de James Guillaume', Le Mouvement Social, 48 (1964), 95–108.

Ateneu Enciclopèdic Popular (AEP). Holds a library and documentary archive for Spanish labour movement – The Historical-Social Documentation Centre. http://www.ateneuenciclopedicpopular.org/.

Baskette Collection. University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign rare books and manuscripts. Papers of Ewing C. Baskette (1903–59), relating to law practice in cases dealing with anarchism, syndicalism and the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW) with a supporting book collection on censorship and intellectual freedom. Collection ranges from 1894 to 1959. Available at www.library.illinois.edu/rbx/manuscript.htm.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 379 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

Bibliothèque Nationale (National Library of France). Manuscript collection includes Proudhon's papers and some of Kropotkin's correspondence. It is a rich source for anarchist materials, books, newspapers and pamphlets. Available at www.bnf.fr/fr/acc/x.accueil.html. For the digital collection, Gallicia, go to http://gallica.bnf.fr/?lang=EN.

Bishopsgate Library, London. Specializes in protest, free thought and cooperation. Holdings include materials from Freedom Press, available at http://www.bishopsgate.org.uk/.

British Library, London www.bl.uk/. Significant collection of hard-to-find books, pamphlets and ephemera relating to anarchism; manuscript material and a range of early socialist movement newspapers, including The Torch, Liberty and Freedom.

Brown University Library, Providence Rhode Island. Houses the John Hay Library in its special collections and holds papers of Ezra Heywood (1829–93), the individualist anarchist and abolitionist, available at http://library.brown.edu/.

Centre de Documentation Anarchiste. Run by the Fédération Anarchiste's Secrétariat Histoire et Archives, has an impressive collection of periodicals, monographs and posters – the latter viewable online at http://sha.federation-anarchiste.org/index.php.

Centre International de Recherches sur l'Anarchisme (CIRA), Lausanne, Switzerland. CIRA is a major research centre containing a vast range of historical and contemporary materials, mainly but not exclusively European. As well as housing an extensive anarchist library, it holds research papers, pamphlets, a substantial collection of newspapers and periodicals and provides an extremely convivial environment for research and learning. Available at www.cira.ch/.

Centre International de Recherches sur l'Anarchisme (CIRA), Marseille, France. This gives access not only to Felip Equy's annually updated 'anarchist bibliographies', but also to an archive of the Centre's Bulletins. The latter has often carried historical or biographical studies, and information on current research. Available at http://cira.marseille.free.fr/.

Centre for Jewish History, New York. Holds papers of Erich Mühsam and materials about him, covering the period 1896–1977. No website. 15 W 16th St, New York, NY 10011–6391, USA.

Cornell University Library. Holds collected documents from the IWW 1905–1971 (the bulk are for 1919–27). A guide to the holdings is available at http://rmc.library.cornell.edu/ead/htmldocs/KCL05210.html.

Danish Workers' Museum and Archive (Arbejdermuseet). Holds collections of left and labour movement materials, available at http://aba.dk.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 380 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

DePaul University Library at Illinois holds an extensive zine collection, with material donated by a number of collectors and creators, from the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Available at http://library.depaul.edu/.

Hewitt Research Library at the Washington State History Research Center holds papers of the Red and Black Book Collective (1981–99), and early leftist bookstore founded in Seattle in 1973 as a vehicle for social change. For details of the library go to www.wshs.org/wshrc/default.aspx.

Hoover Institute, Stanford University. Holds a large multilingual collection of books on anarchism, available at www.hoover.org/library-and-archives.

Houghton Library at Harvard University. Holds the papers of Joseph Ishill (1888–1966): substantial correspondence of leading anarchists and manuscript material, available at http://lib.harvard.edu/.

International Association of Labour History Institutions (IALHI). Founded in 1970 by a group of European specialist research institutes. The site includes details of participating institutions and collections, a news service and information about resources: www.ialhi.org/about.php.

Institut Français d'Histoire Sociale, Paris. Holds an extensive collection of anarchist materials – manuscripts, periodicals, posters, from the nineteenth and early twentieth, notably the correspondence of Jean Grave and documents relating to the Spanish Civil War. 60, rue des Francs-Bourgeois, 75003 Paris. Information is available at the website of the Collectif des centre de documentation en histoire ouvrière et sociale (CODHOS) http://www.codhos.asso.fr/welcome/index.php.

International Institute for Social History. Based in Amsterdam, the Institute is home to the most extensive collection of anarchist and anarchist-related archive materials in the world. The collection includes the papers of the historian Max Nettlau and letters, manuscripts, newspapers, pamphlets and other printed materials connected to a large number of anarchists, groups and movements. Copies of important papers held elsewhere in the world are also housed here. The catalogue and inventories are very useful and the archivists are extremely knowledgeable and helpful. The Institute publishes a journal, the International Review of Social History. The Institute website is www.iisg.nl/.

Kate Sharpley Library. Dedicated to the preservation and promotion of anarchist history through the acquisition, cataloguing and publication of anarchist materials. The library holdings not only include books, pamphlets, newspapers, leaflets and manuscripts but also badges, recordings and photographs. The library is run by a collective of volunteers, who also publish and use their enormous expertise to help and support research into anarchism. Holdings are mainly UK and North American, but also include French, Spanish and Italian materials. Available at www.katesharpleylibrary.net/.

Labadie Collection at the University of Michigan. This rich resource holds a vast range of materials relating to US radical history and it includes a substantial collection of anarchist documents: pamphlets, letters and manuscripts. The collection not only holds papers of well-known historical figures but also a number of local groups and activists. Available at www.lib.umich.edu/labadie-collection. A proportion of the pamphlets are digitized at http://quod.lib.umich.edu/l/labadie/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 381 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

La Trobe University Library, Australia. Merrifield Collection has extensive holdings of manuscripts, photographs, pamphlets, books and ephemera relating to the Australian labour movement. It includes the papers by J. A. Andrews (1865–1903) the anarchist journalist and agitator. Available at www.lib.latrobe.edu.au.

Library of Congress. Huge collection of books, pamphlets and manuscript materials, including rare items from the Paul Avrich collection. Digitized collections are searchable separately from the complete catalogue. Available at www.loc.gov/index.html.

London School of Economics and Political Science. Holds an extensive collection of books on anarchism and political radicalism, the Hall-Carpenter archives (the largest source for the study of gay and lesbian activism in Britain) and some manuscript material, including Kropotkin correspondence, available at www2.lse.ac.uk/library/collections/home.aspx.

Marx Memorial Library. Some anarchist books and pamphlets and materials relating to William Morris's Socialist League. Clarkenwell Green, London http://www.marx-memorial-library.org/.

National Library of Israel. Holds an extensive, multilingual collection of anarchist texts from the nineteenth century and the Martin Buber archive, available at http://aleph.nli.org.il/.

Newberry Library, Chicago. An independent research library, housing rare IWW materials, collected by Franklin and Penelope Rosemont covering the period 1905–2005. Home page: www.newberry.org/.

New York Public Library. Extensive collection of books on anarchism, available at www.nypl.org/.

People's History Museum, Manchester. Holds the Labour History Archive and Study Centre (LHASC). The focus is on the British political left (Labour party, Communist party) but the archive also has material about other working-class movements including the Socialist Sunday School movement and materials relating to the 1984–85 miners' strike. Available at www.phm.org.uk/.

Queen's University, Ontario, Canada. George Woodcock's papers are housed in the special collections and archives, available at http://db.archives.queensu.ca/.

State Library of Victoria, Australia. Holds a rich collection of anarchist materials, available at www.slv.vic.gov.au.

Tamiment Library and Robert F. Wagner Labor Archives. Based in New York, the library houses a collection of materials relating to US labour and radical history. The library includes an important anarchist collection, which includes papers, letters, published and unpublished material by a number of leading activists, including Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman, Sam Dolgoff and Murray Bookchin. Available at www.nyu.edu/library/bobst/research/tam/collections.html#arch.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 382 3/10/2012 5:23:04 PM

University of California, Berkeley. Emma Goldman Papers online at http://sunsite.berkeley.edu/Goldman/.

University of California, San Diego. Mandeville Special Collections Library holds the papers of Francisco Ferrer and a number of rare books about his life. The library page is http://libraries.ucsd.edu/. The register of the Ferrer archive is at http://libraries.ucsd.edu/speccoll/testing/html/mss0248a.html.

University College London. Alex Comfort's papers and the George Orwell archive are housed in the special collections, available at www.ucl.ac.uk/Library/special-coll/.

University of Strathclyde, Glasgow. Special collection holds a range of materials relating to the late-nineteenth and early-twentieth-century movements, including a large number of pamphlets on anarchism, socialism and radical politics, copies of The Word, from the activist Guy Aldred and Patrick Geddes papers, available at www.lib.strath.ac.uk/speccoll/collections.htm. The University hosts the Glasgow Digital Library, which provides access to a range of historical materials and documents, available at http://gdl.cdlr.strath.ac.uk/.

University of Victoria, Canada. Archive holds the Herbert Read papers. Inventory is available at http://library.uvic.ca/site/spcoll/findaids/read.html.

Infoshops and social centres with anarchist collections

56a infoshop @n @archive. South East London (Walworth) social centre established in 1991, housing a library and archive of magazines, leaflets, posters and ephemera about anarchism and related left projects. Available at www.56a.org.uk/archive.html.

Anarchist Library of Abramowski. Poznan at www.rozbrat.org/our-activity/161-trojka-publishing-house.

Black Rose Library. Sydney – housed in a social centre for activities, summer schools and learning, available at http://blackrosebooks.org/.

Canny Little Library. Small collectively run library in Newcastle Upon Tyne, UK. http://cannylittlelibrary.tumblr.com/.

CIRA-Japana. A research and information centre for Japanese anarchism, available at http://cira-japana.net/home/.

Cowley Club. Libertarian social centre in Brighton, UK with cafe, books and library. http://cowleyclub.org.uk.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 383 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Loophole Community Centre and Library. Thornbury, Victoria, Australia. Information about anarchist collections (history, anarcho-syndicalism, anarcha-feminism) is available at http://loopholecommunitycentre.org/library. The centre is home to Barricade Books.

Melbourne Anarchist Club. Infoshop and events. Houses a library, but access by arrangement. Available at http://mac.anarchobase.com/.

Revolting Books. An anarchist library and resource centre run out of the 128 Community Centre, Abel Smith Street, Wellington, New Zealand. Holds lots of rare New Zealand anarchist material and archives going back to the 1970s including a collection called the Tom Fanthorpe Library from the old Wellington Resistance bookshop and anarcho-punk and anarchist ephemera from the 1980s and '90s. Their catalogue of books is at www.librarything.com/catalog/RevoltingBooks but does not include their archives – http://revoltingbooks.wordpress.com/.

Sparrows Nest. Anarchist library and cultural centre established by Anarchist Federation and class-struggle activists in Nottingham, UK. Holds an archive and provides online access to scanned documents, with international and local significance. Available at http://thesparrowsnest.org.uk/.

Online materials

American Transcendentalism Web. Access to works, information and bibliographies about the transcendentalists including Henry David Thoreau. Available at www.vcu.edu/engweb/transcendentalism/authors/index.html.

Anarchist Archives at the University of Victoria. Material documenting anarchist activity across Canada from the twentieth century, currently in construction, with links to other special collections held by the University, notably papers of Herbert Read. Access the anarchist archives at http://library.uvic.ca/dig/AnarchistArchive/

Amiel and Melburn Trust Internet Archive. Access to University and New Left Review and a range of other Marxist–communist journals available at www.amielandmelburn.org.uk/archive_index.htm.

Anarchisme. French-language site, includes an extensive listing of French-language journals. www.anarchisme.wikibis.com/.

Anarchist Library. A project designed as a central depository for anarchist texts. The library includes a wide range of material – historical and contemporary – but the idea behind the project is to provide a space for cooperative working as well as an archival resource. Available at www.theanarchistlibrary.org/docs/aboutus.html.

Anarchy Archives. An online research centre for anarchist history and theory which has been running since 1995. The site provides access to a wealth of transcribed and scanned documents by leading historical figures (Bakunin, Kropotkin, Goldman, Malatesta, Stirner, Reclus, Godwin) as well as other less well-studied figures. Material includes pamphlets and materials relating to anarchist movements worldwide. Available at http://dwardmac.pitzer.edu/anarchist_archives/index.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 384 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Bibliothèque Libertaire. http://bibliolibertaire.org/. Lots of downloadable documents.

Black Crayon. Materials on anti-statist voluntarist, philosophical anarchism – from Proudhon and Rothbard to Goldman and Bookchin. Limited library. Available at www.blackcrayon.com/.

Brown University & the Universtiy of Tulsa Modernist Journal Project. Access to a range of journals, books and essays. Periodicals include Dora Marsden's The Freewoman, The New Freewoman, The Egoist, A. R. Orage's The New Age; Mother Earth and Wyndham Lewis's Blast. http://dl.lib.brown.edu/mjp/periodicals.html.

Bureau of Public Secrets. Situationist texts and translations by Ken Knabb available at www.bopsecrets.org/. Archive material (1961–78) is held in the Tamiment Library, New York: Search keywords using the catalogue at www.nyu.edu/academics/libraries/elmer-holmes-bobstlibrary.html.

Chicago Anarchists on Trial: Evidence from the Haymarket Affair 1886–7. Library of Congress online collection of trial documents, brochures, photographs, prints and manuscripts, available at http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/award98/ichihtml/hayhome.html.

Colours of Resistance Archive. Articles and analysis on anti-racism, patriarchy, colonialism and gender. Available at http://www.coloursofresistance.org/.

Conflict Gypsy. Developing archive for radical environmentalist and animal rights movements; English-language periodicals and documents, flyers and newsletters from the 1970s at www.conflictgypsy.com/.

DadA. Database of German anarchism, available at www.ur.dadaweb.de/.

Dissent! Static versions of the dissent!-network, including images, discussion papers and bulletins of the network, from 2004 to 2007 are archived at http://dissent-archive.ucrony.net/.

Garage Collections. Provides access to anarcho-syndicalist materials, based in Christchurch, New Zealand, available at http://garagecollective.blogspot.com/.

Haymarket Affair Digital Archive. Provides access to primary source materials relating to the 1886 bombing in Haymarket Square, Chicago, and the subsequent trial and execution of the anarchists prosecuted in the aftermath, available at www.chicagohs.org/hadc/. Links to the Dramas of Haymarket site, developed by Northwestern University available at www.chicagohistory.org/dramas/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 385 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Indiana University, Victorian Women Writers Project. Designed to expose lesser-known British women writers of the nineteenth century. Authors include Louisa Bevington (1845–95). Available at http://webapp1.dlib.indiana.edu/vwwp/welcome.do.

Institut für Syndikalismus Forschung (Institute for Syndicalism Research). A research database bringing together materials about the history of syndicalism in the German workers' movement, available at www.syndikalismusforschung.info/.

lag/the Pierre J Proudhon Memorial Computer. A portal to a vast range of active and defunct anarchist groups and projects, includes links to the Zapatista Index amongst many, many more, usually available at http://flag.blackened.net/.

Libertarian Labyrinth. An archive of anarchist and libertarian theory and history, available at http://libertarian-labyrinth.org/archive/Welcome.

Library at nothingness. A random selection of anarchist and situationist texts, available at http://library.nothingness.org/.

Love and Rage. Archive (in construction) of the anarchist federation active in the US, Canada and Mexico until 1998, scheduled availability at www.loveandrage.org/.

LSR: A Paraphilosophical Project. Includes material on Max Stirner – mainly but not exclusively German language, available at www.lsr-projekt.de/index.html#poly.

Marxists Internet Archive. Provides access to a digital collection of material relevant to anarchism, including works by Proudhon and Bakunin, available at www.marxists.org/.

Memorial Libertaria Valladolid. Spanish-language site, holdings include digitized runs of the anarchist papers, La Revista Blanca and Tierra y Libertad, available at www.memorialibertaria.org/valladolid/spip.php?article205.

Non-resistance.org. Spiritual pacifist site with works by Etienne de la Boétie, Tolstoy and others. Tolstoy pages have the complete works. Available at www.nonresistance.org/.

Online Library of Liberty. Supported by the Liberty Fund, a foundation which supports educational projects designed to foster thought and encourage debate on issues relating to liberty. The online library provides access to some resources relevant to anarchism, including work by and articles on Benjamin Tucker. Available at http://oll.libertyfund.org/.

Primitivism. Site includes eclectic mix of writings. Usefully includes work by Bob Black, Fredy Perlman, John Zerzan and others. Available at www.primitivism.com/.

Panarchy. An online resource which provides access to documents and links to a number of groups and individuals not usually included in anarchist sites: individualists and anti-statists – as well as left libertarians and writers working within socialist anarchist traditions, available at www.panarchy.org/index.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 386 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Peace Pledge Union. Geoffrey Ostergaard's Resisting the Nation State: The Pacifist and Anarchist Tradition is available at www.ppu.org.uk/e_publications/dd-trad6.html and Ronald Sampson's Society Without the State (first published as The Anarchist Basis of Pacifism, 1970) is available at www.ppu.org.uk/e_publications/dd-sampson1.html. The site is currently undergoing major reorganization. The main page lists information about conscientious objection and anti-militarist campaigning. Information about the archive is available at www.ppu.org.uk/archives/.

Radicalarchives. Repository for anarchist, marxist and libertarian literatures, including Fifth Estate and an important set of hard-to-find papers on primitivism and its origins, available at http://radicalarchives.org/.

Radical Reference. Available at www.radicalreference.info. A collective of volunteer library workers, founded in 2004, supporting activist communities, progressive organizations and independent journalists by providing professional research support, education and information. The reference shelf has a wealth of tools and information, including democratic decision-making resources at www.radicalreference.info/content/democratic-decision-making-resources.

Radical Tradition. Australian website with heaps of material on anarchism going back 100 years or so. Really good for archival material on Australia, including Melbourne anarchist archives 1966–73, online texts by Bob James, a bibliography of Australian anarcho-syndicalism. A site for Australasian history. Has some material on New Zealand too. Especially good for Australian anarchism since the 1960s. Available at www.takver.com/history/index.htm.

Reason in Revolt. Collection of Australian radical archives, including some anarchist material, comprising many scans of leaflets and publications mainly from 1970s onwards, available at www.reasoninrevolt.net.au/.

Reclaim the Streets. Archive record of events and images by the international direct action network from the mid-to-late 1990s, available at http://rts.gn.apc.org/.

Red Ruffians. Christchurch, New Zealand-based website with articles and documents about anarchism and syndicalism before the 1930s or so in New Zealand – mostly published articles, not archives, but many of the articles are very rare. Available at http://redruffians.tumblr.com/.

Ressources sur l'utopie. Michel Antony's French-language online resource on libertarian and anarchist utopias and utopianism, available at http://artic.ac-besancon.fr/histoire_geographie/new_look/Ress_thematiq/thematiq/utopies.htm.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 387 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Russian Socialists and Anarchists After October 1917. Russian-language portal documenting the history of non-Bolshevik left activists. Includes digitized documents and a photo-archive. Available at http://socialist.memo.ru/.

Sacco and Vanzetti Letters from Prison, 1921–1927. From The Letters of Sacco and Vanzetti, ed. Marion D. Frankfurter and Gardner Jackson (New York: Penguin Books, 2007 [1928]), online at http://law2.umkc.edu/faculty/projects/ftrials/SaccoV/S&Vletters.html.

Scarlet Letter. Available at www.waste.org/~roadrunner/ScarletLetter-Archives/.

Situationist International. Available at www.cddc.vt.edu/sionline/.

Social Movements Collection. Online library of periodicals, pamphlets and brochures relating to US and global protest movements, including anarchism – currently in development, at http://digicoll.manoa.hawaii.edu/socmovements/index.php?c=1.

Spiritual Anarchy. A resource for religious anarchists, available at www.uark.edu/~dksander/anarchy.html.

Spunk Library. The site provides access to an extensive library of anarchist and radical writings, images and links to resources. The project ran from 1997 to 2000 and was last updated in 2002. The site remains an incredibly rich resource for English and non-English-language material. Available at www.spunk.org/index.html.

Stan Iverson Memorial Library and Anarchist Archives. Articles, poetry and images provided by Recollection Books, Seattle, available at http://recollectionbooks.com/siml/library/index.html.

Struggle Site. A rich archive of photos, books and pamphlets documenting anarchist history and popular struggles –women's rights, particularly in Ireland – and also covering the Zapatistas and globalization, available at http://struggle.ws/.

Zine library. Access to a range of radical zines and comics, with a subsection devoted to anarchism, at http://zinelibrary.info/.

Archiving Projects, Search Engines, Catalogues and Directories

Access to Archives (A2A). A project of the UK National Archive, to locate primary materials in the UK, available at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/a2a/default.aspx.

Archives Hub. Search tool for 200 UK Universities, available at http://archiveshub.ac.uk/.

CAUL (Council of Australian University Librarians). Directory of current information about all Australian University Libraries, available at www.caul.edu.au/about-caul/caullist/university-libraries.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 388 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

China Gateway. Information about libraries and information held in and outside China, available at www.bc.edu/research/chinagateway/culthist/start.html.

Copac. National, academic and specialist library catalogue for UK libraries, available at http://copac.ac.uk/libraries/

Cormosea. International Director of South East Asian Libraries. Updated monthly. Available at www.cormosea.org/SoutheastAsiaLibrarians.html#tha.

Cornucopia. Searchable database for UK galleries, museums and libraries, available at www.cornucopia.org.uk/.

Intute. Internet gateway (open until 2014, but with no additional content from July 2011), available at www.intute.ac.uk/faq.html.

Library of Congress and portal provides access to a large number of US and other national libraries at www.loc.gov/z3950/.

New Zealand libraries catalogue. All New Zealand libraries including university libraries are available at http://nzlc.natlib.govt.nz/cgi-bin/Pwebrecon.cgi?DB=local&PAGE=first.

OAlster. Global catalogue with over 6 million records, available at www.oclc.org/oaister/access/default.htm.

SULAIR. Library projects, libraries and archives in Africa, South of the Sahara, available at www-sul.stanford.edu/depts/ssrg/africa/libaf.html and www-sul.stanford.edu/depts/ssrg/africa/rsalibs.html.

Sylvia Milne's Libraries of the World. Links to state libraries and archives and specialist libraries of art as well as women's libraries, available at www.sylviamilne.co.uk/libcats.htm.

UK Web Archive. British web archive from 2004. Site has links to similar international web-archiving projects. Available at http://www.webarchive.org.uk/ukwa/.

Wayback Machine. For surfing archived webs from 1996 at the Internet Archive www.archive.org/about/about.php; http://www.archive.org/web/web.php.

WESS (West European Studies Section). Links to European libraries (including university libraries), research materials, newspaper collections – this is a wiki-type resource, open to multiple editors, available at http://wess.lib.byu.edu/index.php/Main_Page#Guides_to_Library_Resources.

WorldCat. The world's largest library catalogue: search books, articles, DVDs and CDs, save lists and find locations for materials, available at www.worldcat.org/.

Other online repositories/digital libraries

Fair Use Repository. A project designed to facilitate citation of documents online. The site is a compilation of texts in the public domain, includes works by Guy Aldred, Alexander Berkman, Benjamin Tucker. Available at http://fair-use.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 389 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Open Library. Open, non-profit project of the Internet Archive (www.archive.org/). Collection includes works by Bakunin, Kropotkin, Tolstoy, Grave, Berkman, Goldman, Reclus and Tucker – in a variety of languages – and contemporary material by Bookchin, Bob Black, CrimethInc.; commentaries by Kedward and other interesting, less well-known material. Available at http://openlibrary.org/.

Project Gutenberg. Free online books. Anarchist collection includes Paul Eltzbacher's introduction to anarchism as well as work by Kropotkin, Berkman and Goldman. Available at www.gutenberg.org/wiki/Main_Page.

UNZ.org. Free website for books, periodicals and videos. http://www.unz.org/Home/Introduction

Films, Videos and DVDs

For anarchism and film, see:

Anarchist Video. Available at http://anarchistvideo.blogspot.com/.

Arena (1) March 2009, On Anarchist Cinema (Oakland, CA: PM Press; Hastings, East Sussex: ChristieBooks).

Films at ChristieBooks. Available at http://www.christiebooks.com/ChristieBooksWP/.

Santiago Juan-Navarro's Anarchism and Film database at www.christiebooks.com/Film%20Database/anarquismo/index.html.

Films for Action. Available at www.filmsforaction.org/.

Marianne Enckell and Eric Jarry, Les anarchists à l'écran – Anarchists on screen

1901–2003 (CIRA Bulletin, Spring 2004). An English-language version is on the libcom.org site at http://libcom.org/forums/libcommunity/les-anarchistes-%C3%A0-l%E2%80%99%C3%A9cran-anarchists-screen-1901–2003–23042006.

RA Forum Films and Videos. Reviews of documentaries and films relating to anarchism and further bibliographies, available at http://raforum.info/spip.php?rubrique1060.

Radical Video Library. A non-profit DiY project, available at http://fuckcopyright.blogspot.com/2008/08/radical-video-library.html.

SchNEWS Movies. DiY video 'films for action' by SchNEWS and others, available at www.schnews.org.uk/schmovies/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 390 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

16 Tons. A movie about free market and conscience, available at http://vimeo.com/channels/16tons.

Accidental Death of an Anarchist. Dario Fo and Gavin Richards (London: Channel 4, 1983).

Acratas. Virginia Martínez, FONA (Uruguay: Brecha, 2000). Study of an anarchist movement in Rio de la Planta and Montevideo between 1900 and 1930, using documents, photos and films.

Anarchism in America. Steven Fischler, Joel Sucher and Kristina Boden (US: Pacific Street Film; Oakland, CA: distributed by AK Press, 2006). Documentary history available online in eight parts at http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-3323756298621550509#.

Anarchism in Ireland, 1997–2007. Andrew Flood, available at http://anarchism.pageabode.com/andrewnflood/video-anarchism-history-ireland-1997–2007.

Anarquistas: graças a Deus. Walter Avancini (Brazil: Globo Marcas: Som Livre, 2008). Memories of an immigrant Italian family in Brazil at the start of the twentieth century, in search of an anarchist dream.

Angelo Conti Rossini: der Koch, der Clown und die Liebe zur Anarchie. Bernd Dost, Angelo Conti Rossini (Munich: Bayerischer Rundfunk, 2006). Angelo Conti Rossini was a chef and poet, inspired by the anarchists of the Monte Verità area. Description at http://dostfilme.blogspot.com/2009/07/der-koch-der-clown-und-die-liebe-zur.html. ~~Biography of Rossini at www.anarca-bolo.ch/cbach/biografie.php?id=230&PHPSESSID=38c8a4c9a9dccbb1c286b7358022db8c.~~

Benno: The Fiction Memoir of a Painter, France: A Surrealist Guide to Being. Phyllis Nemhauser (Dartmouth College, MA Liberal Studies Program, 2003). An exploration of anarchy, atheism and abstract art, captured in surrealist style.

Buenaventura Durruti anarchiste. Jean-Louis Comolli (France: Arte: Ina, Espagne: Television Española: Mallerich Films, 1999). Description at www.autourdu1ermai.fr/fiches/film/fiche-film-394.html.

Camille Pissarro: der Impressionist als Anarchist. Rudij Bergmann (Stuttgart: Südwestrundfunk, 1999).

Capitalism is the Crisis. A new documentary film about the 'austerity' agenda and potential revolutionary responses by Michael Truscello. The film features both anarchists and Marxists, and has a broadly anarcho-communist perspective. Available at http://capitalismisthecrisis.net/.

Chant public devant deux chaises électriques. Hélène Châtelain (Paris: Doriane Films, 2001). Using the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti to examine issues of state repression, fear and terror.

Daniel Guérin: 1904–1988: Mémoires. Pierre-André Boutang (Paris: ADAV, 1989).

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 391 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

… de toda la vida (All Our Lives). Lisa Berger and Carol Mazer (New York: Cinema Guild, 1986). Documentary about women who participated in the anarchist revolution in Spain. Lisa Berger site: www.lisaberger.net/.

De anarchistische ideeën van Constandse. Anton Constandse (Humanistisch Verbond, 1986). Documentary about the anarchist, free thinker and writer. Biography at the IISH website www.iisg.nl/bwsa/bios/constandse.html.

Die Lange Hoffnung (The Long Hope). Clara Thalmann and Augustin Souchy (Freiburg: Film Media Workshop, 1984). Memories of the Spanish revolution, available in nine parts at www.youtube.com/watch?v=YJtomKNCEj8.

District 25. Robert Craig (Montreal: National Film Board of Canada, 1993). Documentary following the grass-root campaign of Dimitri Roussopoulos, of Black Rose books.

Five Ring Circus. Exposing the real cost of the Vancouver Winter Olympics, available at www.thefiveringcircus.com/.

Franco Leggio, un anarchico di Ragusa (Ragusa: Sicilia Punto L 2007). Italian tribute to Leggio. Extract at www.extempora.com/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=62&Itemid=103 and on YouTube. For details about Leggio's life, go to www.katesharpleylibrary.net/vmcwp8.

Free Voice of Labor – The Jewish Anarchists. Paul Avrich, Steven Fischler and Paul Sucher (New York, Cinema Guild, 1980). Film about the Jewish US anarchist movement, including interviews with members of the Freie Arbeiter Stimme. Available at http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=5956512346545790190#.

Global Responses to the Economic Crisis. A series of documentaries by Brandon Jourdan and Marianne Maeckelbergh, including Occupy Oakland at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-Poo4Mso3sE&list=UU09VL9RzOeSV65PsGnQO6Mg&index=1&feature=plcp and Vimeo at http://vimeo.com/35491349.

Grass Roots, Rural Communes in the USA. Luciano Martinengo and Thomas Wahlberg (New York: Phoenix/BFA Films, 1975). Analysis of several communes including an anarchist community in Maryland.

Harry Hooton (Australia, 1971). A tribute to an anarcho-technologist. Biography at Radical Tradition at www.takver.com/history/hooton_bio.htm.

Inciting to Riot (New York: Cinema Gold, 1994). Documents the activities of Transcendental Students, a New York University anarchist group involved in anti-war demonstrations 1969–70. Clip on YouTube at www.youtube.com/watch?v=1OWLAX6R0Os.

Inside the Revolution (Sydney: ABC, 1983). One of a six-part documentary series concentrating on the lifestyles of anarchists and communists in 1936 and 1937, using interviews and original footage. Download at http://veehd.com/video/4517344_The-Spanish-Civil-War-E5–6-Inside-the-Revolution-1983.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 392 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Interview with Judith Malina. Judith Malina, Margaret Croyden, Mark Robinson, Betty L. Corwin and the League of Professional Theatre Women (New York, 1997). Discussion of anarcho-pacifism and The Living Theatre project.

La bande à Bonnot. Philippe Fourastié (Paris: Seven7, 2004). Originally released in 1968.

Lawrence Ferlinghetti: i colori dell'anarchia. Matteo Bellinelli (Switzerland: Televisione Svizzera, RTSI, 1991). Documentary in which Ferlinghetti discusses the City Lights Bookstore in San Francisco and his art. Biography of Ferlinghetti at Poets.org at www.poets.org/poet.php/prmPID/367.

Libertarias. Vincente Aranda (Coral Gables, FL: Venevision International, 2004). Tells the story of three women participating in the militias during the Spanish Civil War.

Living Utopia. Interviews with survivors of the Spanish Revolution (1936–39), available at http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-33237562-98621550509#.

Made in Secret: The Story of the East Van Porn Collective (Vancouver: East Van Porn Collective, 2005). Film about an anarcha-feminist porn collective brought into being by the invention of the film project. Trailer at www.youtube.com/watch?v=RJ8Yu9xI4Kw.

Maggots and Men. Cary Cronenwett, Ilona Berger and Blake Nemec (San Francisco, CA: Postcode Productions, 2009). Retells the story of Krondstadt, 1921, with a subtext of gender anarchy. Trailer at www.youtube.com/watch?v=wZEz4Kk3tMc.

Nestor Makhno, paysan d'Ukraine (Hélène Châtelain, Paris: CNC, 2006). Short review and access at www.esprit68.org/makhno.html.

!Ni peones, ni patrones! Hanneke Willemse (Hilversum: Video Nederlands Filminstituut, 1986). Reconstruction of the anarcho-syndicalist labour struggles in Aragon – includes historical material and interviews. In six parts on YouTube and at ChristieBooks at www.christiebooks.com/ChristieBooksWP/?p=3003.

Où est passé Proudhon? A documentary by Anne Arguose and Hughes Peyret at http://vimeo.com/8150795.

Paul Goodman Changed My Life. Information about the film, supporting biographical materials and trailer at www.paulgoodmanfilm.com.

PickAxe, Breaking the Spell, The Miami Model, & Five Short Films. Franklin Lopez, Donald Clark, Thomas Worth, Tim Ream and Tim Lewis (Olympia, WA: CrimethInc. Perpetual Motion Pictures, 2004). Grass-roots anarchist perspectives on protest actions. Available at http://crimethinc.com/tools/dvd.html.

Projekt Arthur – Die Gewaltfrage 1968. Mattias Deutschmann (Medienwerkstatt Frieburg, 1987). Documentary examining the issue of violence. Related documents at the IISH at www.iisg.nl/archives/en/files/p/10831421.php.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 393 3/10/2012 5:23:05 PM

Punk le vote. Daniel Cross and Eric Denis (Montréal, QC: Eyesteelfilm; Watertown, MA: Documentary Educational Resources, 2007). Party political versus anarchist campaigning. Film site at www.eyesteelfilm.com. Eyesteel films have also produced Exposing Homelessness, S.P.I.T. Squeeqee Punks in Traffic, The Street and Peter, Donald, Willie, Pat.

Resist: A Film. Directed by Dirk Szuszies (ex–Living Theatre) about the Living Theatre in New York. Released in 2003. Clip and download at www.patrickgrant.com/RESIST.htm.

Rudolf Rocker, relieur et anarchiste (Christian Hohoff). Available at http://libertaire.pagesperso-orange.fr/archive/2000/228-mai/rocker.htm.

Sacco e Vanzetti. Giuliano Montaldo (Brazil: Versátil Home Video, 2004 [1971]). English-language version (Tulsa, OK: VCI Home Video, 2000).

Sacco and Vanzetti. Peter Miller (New York: First Run Features, 2007). Film uses archival clips, music, poetry, interviews with historians, artists and activists. Trailer and information at www.willowpondfilms.com/sacco_and_vanzetti.html.

San Michele avena un gallo* (Saint Michael Had a Rooster). Paolo and Vittorio Taviani (New York: Forx Lorber Video, 1997). A story of an anarchist and the changing nature of the revolutionary movement during his imprisonment, adapted from a story by Leo Tolstoy.

Spreading Propaganda. David Moisl and Nadine Laule (San Francisco, CA: 400 Blows Pictures, 2004). Clip and more information about 400 Blows productions at www.400blows.com/documentaries.html.

Testimony of Eugenio Cordero, Interview with Scott Boehm and Andrea Davis, August 2, 2008 (Madrid: Spanish Civil War Memory Project, 2008). Available at http://libraries.ucsd.edu/speccoll/scwmemory/catalog/engbb8704191n.html.

The Corporation. Documentary, with interviews about US corporate history and practices. Available on DVD. Information at www.thecorporation.com/.

The Day the Country Died – The DVD: A History of Anarcho Punk 1980–1984. Roy Wallace (London: Cherry Red Records, 2006), available at http://fuckcopyright.blogspot.com/2009/04/day-country-died-2007.html.

The Net: The Unabomber, LSD and the Internet (Litz Dammbeck, Other Cinema: 2006). In 12 parts on YouTube at www.youtube.com/watch?v=_wKerSvxlU.

Theory and Practice: Conversations with Noam Chomsky and Howard Zinn. Produced by PM Press, information and clips at www.thecorporation.com/.

This Is What Democracy Looks Like (Jill Friedberg, Rick Rowley, Big Noise Films, 2000). Documentary made from footage of the 1999 Seattle WTO demonstration.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 394 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

To My Son in Spain: Finnish Canadians in the Spanish Civil War (Dave Clement, Saku Pinta, Thunderstone Pictures, 2009). Documentary about Finnish Canadian volunteers from Thunder Bay and Sudbury, Ontario, featuring the story of Jules Paivio, the son of a Finnish poet. Information at www.thunderstonepictures.com/to-my-son-in-spain-finnish-canadians-in-the-spanish-civil-war/.

Un Autre Futur. Richard Prost (Les films du Village: Cités-Télévision, 1997). VHS. Four-part documentary charting the origins of the Spanish CNT, the 1936 Revolution, the exile and resistance in Spain in the Franco era, now available on DVD. Information at www.prost.tv/4.html.

Zéro de conduit. Jean Vigo (Brandon Films, 1933). Story of a school revolt which influenced Truffaut's 400 Blows and Lindsay Anderson's If. Available at http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=7559210598531959197#.

Publishers and Bookshops

Independent and radical book shop guide (Europe). From Aalst (Belgium) to Zurich, available at www.bookstoreguide.org/.

Radical book shops directory for the US and Canada (compiled from infoshop). Available at www.kersplebedeb.com/mystuff/radspace.html.

Radical book shops directory for the UK (from SchNEWS). Available at www.schnews.org.uk/pap/bookshops.htm.

Radical reference list. For book shops in the United States, New South Wales and Victoria, at www.radicalreference.info/alt_books.

AK Press. Huge stock of literature: the site provides access to the catalogue and to a range of other resources, blog, information and links, available at www.akpress.org/.

Ardent Press. Anarchist and anti-political books, available at http://ardentpress.org/index.html.

Autonomedia. Publishes radical politics, media and arts and maintains an interactive info exchange, available at www.autonomedia.org/.

Black Powder Press. Collective print and distribution in Santa Cruz, available at http://blackpowderpress.com/index.php?route=common/home.

Black & Red Books. Anti-authoritarian press, publishing since 1968, available at http://blackandred.org/index.html.

Black Raven Editions. Linked with the Victoria Anarchist Reading Circle, Victoria, Canada. Available at www.victoriaanarchistreadingcircle.ca/ and the Camas Books and Info Store at www.camas.ca/. This site has a range of links to local and international groups.

Black Rose Books. Available at http://blackrosebooks.net/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 395 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Bolerium Books. Shopping and online ordering of rare and out-of-print books on American social movements, gay and lesbian studies, Spanish Civil War and more, in San Francisco since 1981, available at www.bolerium.com.

C.A.L. Press. Created to publish Anarchy: A Journal of Desire Armed. Publishes work by John Zerzan and Bob Black. Available at http://calpress.org/.

City Lights Bookstore. Founded in 1953 by the poet Lawrence Ferlinghetti and Peter D. Martin, available at www.citylights.com/.

Christie Books. Information about publications and film archive, with links to a range of other anarchist sites, available at www.christiebooks.com/ChristieBooksWP/?page_id=9.

Club du Livre Libertaire – La biodiversité des éditeurs libertaires. Available at http://clla.info/.

Continnum Press. Now a subsidiary of Bloomsbury Press, developing a major new series in Contemporary Anarchist Studies (Laurence Davis, Uri Gordon, Nathan Jun and Alex Prichard eds). Main site: www.continuumbooks.com/. For anarchist studies series: http://politicsatcontinuum.typepad.com/politics_at_continuum/2010/07/new-series-contemporary-anarchist-studies.html.

Eberhardt Press. Publishing original work and classics since 2004. The site has a reading room with downloadable material. Available at http://eberhardtpress.org/.

Elephant Editions. Available at http://alphabetthreat.co.uk/elephant-editions/.

Feral House. Available at http://feralhouse.com/.

Five Leaves Publishing. Independent radical publisher, specializing in literary work, but also publishes work by Colin Ward, available at www.fiveleaves.co.uk/.

Freedom Press. London-based publisher established in 1886, produces a range of books and the newspaper Freedom. Access to store and news/events at www.freedompress.org.uk/news/.

Haymarket Books. The name refers to the Chicago anarchists: non-profit progressive publisher and distributor, available at www.haymarketbooks.org/about.

Housmans. London: radical bookshop since 1945, with online ordering facility, available at www.housmans.com/.

Invisible Molotov. Market anarchist zine distro and publishing house, available at http://invisiblemolotov.wordpress.com/.

Jura Books, Sydney. Available at http://jura.org.au/.

Lawrence & Wishart. Founded in 1936 with historical links to the Communist Party, Lawrence & Wishart is an independent radical publisher. Journals include Anarchist Studies. Available at www.lwbooks.co.uk/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 396 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Left Bank Books Collective. Non-for-profit and community-based bookshop – new and second hand – operating and campaigning in Seattle since 1973, available at www.leftbankbooks.com/.

Les Editions Atelier de création libertaire. Available at www.atelierdecreationlibertaire.com/.

Little Black Cart. Available at http://littleblackcart.com/.

Merlin Press. Non-sectarian Marxist, based in London, available at www.merlinpress.co.uk/.

New International Bookshop. Melbourne, Australia – general left bookshop with online ordering, available at www.newinternationalbookshop.org.au/.

News from Nowhere. Not-for-profit, workers' co-operative, independent radical community bookshop in Liverpool, available at www.newsfromnowhere.org.uk/.

Northern Herald Books. Second-hand books, pamphlets and periodicals on radical history, women's history, anarchism, free thought and more. No website: 5 Close Lea, Rastrick, Brighouse, HD6 3AR, UK.

Pluto Press. London-based radical publisher with a substantial catalogue in politics. Publishes work by Chomsky, Eduardo Galeano, Howard Zinn. Available at www.plutobooks.com/index.asp.

PM Press. The site provides access to the catalogue/store as well as blogs, events and activities, available at www.pmpress.org/content/index.php.

Publico. The bookshop of the Fédération Anarchiste, available at http://www.librairie-publico.com/.

Rebel Press. Not-for-profit anarchist press in Wellington, New Zealand, available at www.rebelpress.org.nz/.

Recollection Used Books. Second-hand bookstore, founded in 1995, specializing in counter-culture, Vietnam, modern literature, radical and social movements. Online catalogue and ordering at http://74.220.215.218/~recollec/.

Red Emma's Bookstore Coffee House. Baltimore at www.redemmas.org/.

See Sharp Press. Founded by Chaz Bufe, author of Listen Anarchist!, publishing in a range of fields, including anarchism. As well as the catalogue, the site also provides online access to texts and links to other anarchist groups. Available at www.seesharppress.com/index.html.

Seven Stories Press. Independent publisher based in New York. Strong literary focus but also publishes Human Rights Watch reports and political works by Chomsky, Howard Zinn, Michael Albert and other 'voices of conscience'. Available at http://sevenstories.com/.

Spokesman Books. Non-anarchist left publisher, the imprint of the Bertrand Russell Peace Foundation, available at www.spokesmanbooks.com/.

South End Press. A non-profit making collective, publishes in a wide range of fields: gender and sexuality, politics, peace studies and terror, sociology – with a remit to develop understanding and help activism, available at www.southendpress.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 397 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Stimulants. Online radical bookshop – books, pamphlets, CDs, DVDs, periodicals, available at www.radicalbooks.co.uk.

Verso. Independent radical books, launched by New Left Review, available at www.versobooks.com/.

Zed Books. Independent academic publisher specializing in work from the margins, especially international, available at http://www.zedbooks.co.uk/.

Journals

ACME. Online international journal for analysis of the social, the spatial and the politics, providing a forum for the discussion of critical and radical work from a variety of perspectives, including anarchist, available at www.acme-journal.org/.

Affinities: A Journal of Radical Theory, Culture and Action. The online journal linked to the affinity project publishes a range of material, including peer-reviewed papers. It focuses on examining alternatives to neo-liberal capitalism and exploring alternative, sustainable, non-hierarchical ways of living. Available at http://dev.affinitiesjournal.org/index.php/affinities.

Alternative Libertaire. French-language monthly, linked to the international anarchist federation, available at www.alternativelibertaire.org/spip.php?rubrique4.

Anarchy: A Journal of Desire Armed. US-based magazine co-founded by Fredy Perlman, available at www.anarchymag.org/.

Anarchist Developments in Cultural Studies. An international, peer-review open-access journal, which describes itself as postanarchist, but which has a broader scope than this implies. The journal has an interdisciplinary focus and publishes material from diverse methodological traditions. Available at www.anarchist-developments.org.

Anarchist Studies. An international peer-review journal publishing work from across the political spectrum, in a wide range of disciplinary fields, available at www.lwbooks.co.uk/journals/anarchiststudies/contents.html.

Antipode: A Radical Journal of Geography. An international journal for academics, students, activists and policymakers involved or interested in social, economic and environmental change and in using geographical knowledge in support of left-dissenting traditions. The site provides online access to articles and features a substantial body of work on anarchism at www.antipode-online.net/.

Arena. Successor to the Cienfuegos Press Anarchist Review, Arena provides a forum for debate and discussion of libertarian culture, arts and politics. Issue

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 398 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

1 (May 2009) was devoted to anarchist cinema and issue 2 (June 2010) to anarchists in fiction. Published by ChristieBooks. Available at www.christiebooks.com/.

Aufheben. UK-based autonomist, libertarian communist journal, founded in 1992, available at http://libcom.org/aufheben.

Black Flag. UK-based magazine, relaunched in 2007, available at http://blackflagmagazine.blogspot.com/. Archived material (to 2000) is available at http://flag.blackened.net/blackflag/.

Broken Pencil. Print and web-based review magazine, founded in Toronto in 1995, and dedicated to underground culture and independent arts: zines, books, websites, videos and artworks. Reprints articles from the alternative press. Available at www.brokenpencil.com/.

Ceasefire. Independent online magazine for news and radical discussion of politics, art and activism, available at http://ceasefiremagazine.co.uk.

Commune. Communist, internationalist – for workers' self-management and communism from below, available at http://thecommune.co.uk/.

Defenestrator. Philadelphia-based online journal at http://defenestrator.org/info. The site has links to local organizing and the Lancaster Avenue Autonomous Space (LAVA) in Philadelphia. Available at http://www.lavazone.org/

Direct Action. Magazine of the Solidarity Federation (SolFed), the British section of the International Workers' Association (IWA), available at www.direct-action.org.uk/.

Divergences. Libertarian review publishing in French, German, English and Spanish, available at http://divergences.be/.

Drunken Boat. An occasional anthology of arts and literature published in magazine and journal formats, edited by Max Blechman. Volume 2, Art Rebellion Anarchy, is published by Autonomedia/Left Bank Books (1994). The collection Revolutionary Romanticism: A Drunken Boat Anthology is published by City Lights (1999).

Dysopia. Green anarchist imprint for pamphlets and zines, available at http://dysophia.wordpress.com/.

Endnotes. Irregular communist theoretical journal, established in 2005 by former members of Aufheben, available at http://endnotes.org.uk/.

Ephemera: Theory and Politics in Organization. An independent, peer-review journal specializing in conceptual and theoretical questions of organization and in organizational processes or life. Ephemera also run conferences, details are on the site. Available at www.ephemeraweb.org/.

Fifth Estate. Anti-authoritarian American-based magazine, publishing since 1965, available at www.fifthestate.org/. Records from 1967 to 2003 are archived in the Labadie collection, University of Michigan.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 399 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Green Anarchy. Anti-civilization, eco-anarchist resistance, available at http://greenanarchy.org/. (Issues of Green Anarchy from 2000 to 2009 are available to download from the zine library or the wayback machine.)

Here: Notes from the Present. Italian/English-language realistic-utopian review and diary of events, for individual reflection, observation and testimony on everyday politics and events, available at www.quiappuntidalpresente.it/index_En.html.

i-studies journal. Stirnerite journal. The site also provides access to copies of Dora Marsden's Freewoman, New Freewoman and The Egoist. Available at http://i-studies.com/journal/index.shtml.

Interface: A Journal for and about Social Movements. Designed for activists, researchers and academics as an inclusive, multilingual space for exchange and mutual learning. Interface has pioneered the publication of material in a number of different formats. Available at www.interfacejournal.net/.

International Review of Social History. An international peer-reviewed academic journal, which has a long-established reputation for research excellence. The journal specializes in social and labour history and has published a wide body of research on anarchism. The journal is run by the International Institute for Social History in Amsterdam. Available at http://journals.cambridge.org/action/displayJournal?jid=ISH.

International Journal of Inclusive Democracy. A peer-reviewed international journal exploring inclusive democracy – a transformative project drawing on democratic and socialist traditions linked to an activist network. Formerly Democracy and Nature, the journal publishes work by authors writing from different perspectives, including anarchist. Available at www.inclusivedemocracy.org/journal/.

Jalan Journal of Asian Liberation. Available at http://jalanjournal.org/.

Le Monde Libertaire. Weekly French-language paper of the Fédération Anarchiste, available at www.monde-libertaire.fr/.

Libertaria. Online Italian-language journal with links to a range of material on Italian anarchism and international organizations, available at http://libertaria.it/.

May Day. Anarchist/libertarian magazine for discussion of ideas with an organizational focus/interest in praxis. The current site, http://mayday-magazine.vpweb.co.uk/default.html, is being wound down. The new address is http://mayday-magazine.com/.

Not Bored. Autonomous, situ-inspired, irregularly published journal, available at www.notbored.org/index1.html.

Notes from the Borderland. Left/green anti-fascist magazine, publishing since 1997, with a particular interest in security/secret state, available at www.borderland.co.uk/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 400 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Organise! Magazine of the UK Anarchist Federation, available at www.afed.org.uk/publications/organise-magazine.html.

Πανοπτικόν* (Panoptikon). Greek-language theoretical/academic journal. Last issue October 2010. Available at http://e-village.gr/panopticon/periodiko.html.

People of Colour Organize! Online journal and web resource for revolutionary left thinking about race, national oppression and self-determination, available at www.peopleofcolororganize.com/

Perspectives on Anarchist Theory. An online journal run by the Institute for Anarchist Studies publishing work by writers and translators supported by the IAS, anarchist views of contemporary events, book reviews and information about IAS events. Available at http://www.anarchiststudies.org/perspectives.

Przeglad Anarchistyczny* (The Anarchist Review). Published twice a year to provide a forum for debate of radical movements in Poland and beyond, with a focus on self-organizing and action, available at www.przeglad-anarchistyczny.org/english/.

Psychic Swamp. New from 2011, a quarterly review of surre(gion)alism, by Hieronymous Fisch, aka John Clark, available at www.psychicswamp.info/.

Rebel Worker. Paper of the Sydney-based anarcho-syndicalist network. The site includes copies of archived editions. Available at www.rebelworker.org/.

Réfractions. French-language print journal of anarchist research and discussion. Some online materials also in Italian and Spanish. Available at http://refractions.plusloin.org/.

Revista Anarchica. Italian-language online journal, now also publishing in English, available at http://arivista.org/. Papers in English from the journal and Libertaria looking at Italy and the cold war, 1969–2010, are available at http://tangoitalia.com/pinelli/.

Rolling Thunder: An Anarchist Journal of Dangerous Living. Biannual magazine published by CrimethInc. Ex-Workers' Collective. Available at www.crimethinc.com/rt/.

Διαδρομή Ελευθερίας* (Route of Freedom). Greek-language online journal, available at www.anarchy.gr.

SchNEWS. A free weekly direct action news-sheet produced in Brighton, UK. The site also has links, information about events and guides. Available at www.schnews.org.uk/index.php.

Shift Magazine. Four issues a year, run from Manchester, UK – academic/activist discussing ideas, tactics and strategies. The site has useful links to other magazines. Available at http://shiftmag.co.uk/.

Social Anarchism: A Journal of Theory and Practice. An international peer-reviewed academic journal which publishes on anarchist history, politics, practice, labour and social issues and also includes original poetry, available at www.socialanarchism.org/index.php.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 401 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Socialist Register. Non-sectarian Marxist/new left journal, available at http://socialistregister.com/index.php/srv/index.

Slingshot. A quarterly, independent, radical newspaper published by the Slingshot Collective since 1988. The site includes back copies and details of the annual organizer. Available at http://slingshot.tao.ca/index.php.

Stir Magazine. Designed to move beyond critique to encourage radical community action (Stirtoaction), Available at http://stirtoaction.com/about/.

Theory in Action. The journal of the Transformative Studies Institute is an interdisciplinary peer-reviewed journal designed to promote dialogue about research into social justice and the interrelationships of theory and practice, available at www.transformativestudies.org/publications/theory-in-action-the-journal-of-tsi/.

Tolstoy Studies Journal. Peer-reviewed academic journal, focussing on literature, but welcomes contributions relevant to any aspect of Tolstoy scholarship, available at www.utoronto.ca/tolstoy/journal.html.

Turbulence Magazine. Run by an international collective to think about and discuss the political, social, economic and cultural theories of direct action movements, as well as the networks of diverse practices and alternatives that surround them, available at http://turbulence.org.uk/about/.

Umanità Nova. Italian-language weekly, linked to the Federazione Anarchica Italiana (FAI), available at http://www.umanitanova.org/.

Upping the Anti. Ultra-left, anti-capitalist, anti-imperialist journal of theory and action published in Canada, available at http://uppingtheanti.org/.

Voices of Resistance from Occupied London. Twice-yearly journal of theory and action against authority and power: international, not London-centric but with a focus on urban issues/culture/politics/life. Online at www.occupiedlondon.org/.

Journals: Gone but not forgotten

For an extensive list of historic journals, see Paul Nursey-Bray, Anarchist Thinkers and Thought (entry in the 'Bibliography').

A wiki list of anarchist journals, some current, but mainly historical, is available at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_anarchist_periodicals.

Anarchy Archives has a growing number of anarchist journals, 'cold off the presses' with links to other access sites at http://dwardmac.pitzer.edu/anarchist_archives/periodicals.html.

Aphoria. Anti-state communist and anarchist journal, galvanized by the Iraq War and post-9/11 politics, available at http://aporiajournal.tripod.com/index.html.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 402 3/10/2012 5:23:06 PM

Black Mask/Up Against the Wall Motherfucker. Produced in New York by Ben Morea and Ron Hahne. The ten issues of Black Mask (1966–67) and other material produced by the group have been published by PM Press: Black Mask & Up Against the Wall Motherfucker: The Incomplete Works of Ron Hahne, Ben Morea, and the Black Mask Group, 2011.

Blast (1916–17). Edited by Alexander Berkman. Now available in book form, published by AK Press, 2004.

Do or Die: Voices from Ecological Resistance (1992–2003). Archive of the occasional journal (1–10) are accessible at www.eco-action.org/dod/.

Freie Arbeiter Stimme (1890–1977). New York Yiddish anarchist paper, established as the counterpart to Rudolf Rocker's London paper Arbeter Fraynd. Copies available at the Tamiment Library.

Killing King Abacus. Insurrectionary anarchist, available at www.reocities.com/kk_abacus/. Issues of Wilful Disobedience are on the Venomous Butterfly Page on the KKA website, http://www.reocities.com/kk_abacus/vbutterfly.html.

Les Temps Nouveaux (1895–1914). Influential anarcho-communist journal edited, in Paris, by Jean Grave. Scan copies are available (1895–97) through Worldcat.

Liberty – A Journal of Anarchist Communism (1894). Founded by James Tochatti and Louisa Bevington in London, online at http://libcom.org/history/liberty-journal-anarchist-communism.

Man! (1933–1940). A collection of articles, MAN! An Anthology of Ideas, Essays, Poetry and Commentaries, ed. Marcus Graham, was published by Cienfuegos Press in 1974.

Mother Earth (1906–1918). Edited by Emma Goldman, an anthology (ed. Peter Glassgold) is published under the title of Anarchy! (New York: Counterpoint, 2000).

NOW (1940–47). Radical literary journal edited by George Woodcock.

Our Generation (1961–94). Originally Our Generation Against Nuclear War. A selection of articles appear in the book, Our Generation Against Nuclear War, ed. Dimitros Roussopoulos (Montreal: Black Rose Books, 1984). Back copies and some online copies are available on the Black Rose website at http://blackrosebooks.net/our_generation_journal.

Publications of Freedom Press (1928–1976). Journals reproduced on 16 reels of microfilm, including Anarchy (1961–70); Freedom (1951–76); Spain and the World (1936–38); War Commentary (1939 to August 1945). Held at the British Library. Available at www.bl.uk/services/document/microrescoll/rescola.html (item 7). A selection of articles from Anarchy was published in A Decade of Anarchy (1961–1970) ed. Colin ward (London: Freedom Press, 1987); and from Freedom (1965–1986) in The State is Your Enemy (London: Freedom Press, 1991).

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 403 3/10/2012 5:23:07 PM

Raven (1987–2003). A quarterly published by Freedom Press, London. As well as publishing original material by Vernon Richards, Colin Ward, Heiner Becker and Nicholas Walter, it also published translations of historical work, recorded local history through the eyes of East End activists and art work by Clifford Harper.

Rebel Worker (1965–66). Paper of the Franklin and Penelope Rosemont's Chicago Surrealist Group. See Franklin Rosemont and Charles Radcliffe (eds), Dancin' in the Streets! Anarchists, IWWs, Surrealists, Situationists & Provos in the 1960s – As Recorded in the Pages of The Rebel Worker and Heatwave (Sixties Series) (Chicago: Charles H. Kerr, 2005). On Heatwave, see history at www.notbored.org/heatwave.html.

Retort: An Anarchist Review (1942–51). Edited, hand set and hand printed in Bearsville, New York, by Holley Cantine and Dachine Rainer, for discussion of social philosophy and the arts. The Match! Historic Reprint Series – Retort 1942–51 Special Anthology Issue (Tucson, AZ: Woodworth) was published in 1987.

Thr@ll. Launched in 1998, by an anarchist collective in Wellington and Christchurch, Aotearoa/New Zealand. Issues from 2000 to 2002 are available online at www.thrall.orconhosting.net.nz/back.html.

Der Zieglebrenner (1917–21). Edited by Ret Marut (B. Traven) in Munich and published illegally after 1919. A facsimile of the complete run was published by Edition Leipzig in 1967.

Fairs and Conferences

Anarchist Bookfairs. List of international fairs with links to sites is available at http://anarchistbookfairs.blogspot.com/. Fairs are cultural and social events and usually include workshops, meetings and discussion spaces as well as stalls selling current and out-of-print materials.

Anarchist Studies Network. Organizes conferences, workshops and other events and supports participation of members in external conferences. Details of the current programme is on the website at http://anarchist-studies-network.org.uk/Upcoming.

BASTARD conference (Berkeley Anarchist Students of Theory and Research and Development). Runs annually in March, organized by the Berkeley Anarchist Study Group, available at http://sfbay-anarchists.org/conference/.

Left Forum Conference. Enormous annual conference held in New York in May. It brings together progressive/left activists and academics from a wide spectrum, including anarchists. Available at www.leftforum.org/.

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 404 3/10/2012 5:23:07 PM

North American Anarchist Studies Association Conference. First annual conference held in 2009. Proceedings of this and subsequent conferences are available through NAASN site www.naasn.org/.

Renewing the Anarchist Tradition (RAT) conference. Organized by the Institute for Anarchist Studies. The conference archive is available at http://www.homemadejam.org/renew/. For information about current conference, visit http://www.anarchiststudies.org/rat .

9781441172129_Ch18_Fpp_txt_prf.indd 405 3/10/2012 5:23:07 PM